SPEAKING TOUR PLAN APPROVED SAYS HARDING

Senator Holds Conference
With Harry
Daugherty.
VISITS COLUMBUS
Discusses Important Questions In Talks This Week.

Columbus, Sept. 13.—Approval of the plan of Senator Harding's speaking tour away from Marion, likely to start early in October, yesterday was given by the candidate at a conference here with Harry M. Daugherty, his pre-convention campaign manager.

Before being announced, the plan finally will be reconsidered by New York and Chicago headquarters, with whom Daugherty will confer over long distance.

The plan is one which the candidate, his managers and the Republican national committee always have contemplated since the convention, Daugherty said, adding, "the time in the campaign now has arrived when the plan will be given definiteness."

Daugherty will go to Chicago headquarters either tomorrow or Wednesday. He said announcement of the speaking plans may be made from there.

Senator Harding, Mrs. Harding and Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Scobey of Texas, who have been living with the Hardings at Marion all summer, motored here yesterday afternoon and had dinner at the home of Malcolm Jennings. The party returned to Marion last night.

The Japanese question, railway labor, naturalization of aliens and constitutionalism head the list of subjects to be discussed by Senator Harding in front porch speeches at Marion during the week.

The Republican nominee's views on the Japanese problem as it is presented in conditions on the Pacific coast are to be set forth tomorrow in an address to a delegation of Californians. He has conferred with a number of Republican leaders from the coast states on the subject and has collected considerable data in preparation for the speech.

Railway affairs are to be dealt with by the senator at a gathering of the Harding and Coolidge Railway Employees' club of Marion, and on Friday, the anniversary of the adoption of the federal constitution, the nominee will make an address on constitutional government to delegations from Ashland, Champaign, Painesville, Knox, Logan, Ottawa Putnam and Tuscarawas counties, Ohio.

Many prominent citizens of foreign birth will be in Saturday's delegation which will hear an address on the Americanizing of immigrants.

CHAPLIN'S WIFE TO WITHDRAW DIVORCE SUIT FROM COURT

Now Wants Half Of Estate Of Actor
Husband.

New York, Sept. 13.—Mrs. Mildred Harris Chaplin, wife of the laughing-king of the movies, has decided to drop divorce proceedings and sue to obtain a half interest in her husband's estate, estimated at $3,000,000, it was announced today.

Mrs. Chaplin's attorney Henry J. Goldsmith, said if a settlement satisfactory to Mrs. Chaplin could not be arranged then suit would be started to tie up all of Chaplin's property on the ground he is a British subject who has threatened to go back to England and never return.

Mrs. Chaplin said their marital troubles were due to her husband's socialistic theories, which "he liked to talk about and wanted me to practice."

But Charlie wasn't losing any sleep over his troubles, which were to be subject of a conference between attorneys for both sides this afternoon.

When reached at the telephone, at the Ritz-Carlton, where he answers to the name of "Mr. Spencer," he said he wanted to sleep and could not be disturbed until he woke up at one o'clock.

CAFETERIA OF HOTEL REGIL TO OPEN

The cafeteria at the Regil Hotel, 516 E. Main street, since the hostelry was remodelled last spring, will be opened Thursday, according to E. L. Leger, proprietor.

When the hotel was remodelled, the dining room was tiled and redecorated and new tables, furniture and an entire new cafeteria system put in. Besides this cafeteria room, a dining room where service will be the motto, is also provided.

ITALIAN GOVERNMENT NOW MASSING TROOPS

Fear Of Attempt At Revolution Leads Authorities To Station Soldiers In Industrial Sections Of Country.

London, Sept. 13.—Although the Italian confederation of labor has declared against an immediate revolution in Italy, the government is still massing troops in the industrial districts, according to a Milan dispatch to the Daily Express today.

While the delegates to the national labor conference at Milan voted by a majority of 200,000 ballots against a revolution, they believed that the iron and steel workers should control the plants they have already seized through the soviet system.

A speech by Signor Darogona, labor leader and Socialist member of the chamber of deputies, did much to

POLAND READY TO GIVE PEACE TERMS TO REDS

Nonintervention Is Sought
By Both Countries.

BOUNDARIES DEFINED

Limitation Fixed On Armed Forces Of Nations.

Paris, Sept. 13.—Gains for the Poles in two sectors of the Polish battle front were claimed in a soviet war office communique wireless from Moscow today. It says:

"In the direction of Grodno we occupied Kozupicz also villages southeast of Grodno. We captured prisoners and guns. In the region of Volkovsk there is violent fighting. In the Brest-Litovsk sector we occupied villages east of Hrubesoy. In the region of Regatin (Kohatyn?) a battle is in progress for possession of the town."

Another radiogram from Moscow stated that the organization had begun of a Red guard in Poland.

Warsaw, Sept. 13.—The chief Polish peace terms to be submitted to the Russian soviet delegates at the coming conference are those dealing with the territorial question, which, according to political circles here, would give Russia a western boundary running north and south somewhere in the region of the German line of defense against the Russians in 1916. The three outstanding points follow:

First—Poland and soviet Russia recognize the principle of nonintervention in the internal affairs of either signatory of the treaty. Each side gives assurance not to protect or further any organization directed against the prevailing government of the other.

Second—Russia to resign any claims to territories west of a boundary to be determined at Riga, this line following roughly the former trench system of the Germans. Russia is to recognize Poland's right to arrange with the people living west of this line for their future allegiance or future relations between Poland and the people of the districts concerned.

Third—Both countries to make stipulations to include in the peace treaty a clause to limit the armed forces of each country.

Aix Les Bains France, Sept. 13.—The conference of Premier Giolitti of Italy and Premier Millerand of France, which was originally called to discuss Franco-Italian matters took a broad international turn today. When the meeting was resumed at 10:30 o'clock it was announced that M. Juncos, representative of the Roumanian government, would be heard concerning Roumanian finances and that M. Paderewski, former premier of Poland, would be received to discuss the Russo-Polish war.

It is likely that a Franco-Italian economic agreement will result from the conference.

Premier Millerand issued an informal statement saying that the first session on Sunday "was a complete success."

FARMER KILLED BY TRAIN
Bucyrus, Sept. 13.—Charles Kissling, 50, farmer, was killed at a Pennsylvania grade crossing six miles west of here. Driving an automobile, he was struck by a freight train and killed. A fast east-bound passenger train approached.

BITTER FIGHT WITHIN UNION NOW EXPECTED

Policy Of United Mine Workers On Strike To Be Settled.

MEET MONDAY

Early Reports Show Situation Somewhat Improved.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Sept. 13.—The policies of the United Mine Workers of America in dealing with the anthracite strike will not be determined without a bitter fight within the miners' organization.

The general scale committee of the districts, which takes in union officials in district 1, 7 and 9 will meet at Hazleton this afternoon to consider President Wilson's answer to the union heads. President Kenney of District 7 and President Charles Golden of District 9 are prepared to take steps to urge the men in their districts to return to work.

While there is keen disappointment over the turn the anthracite strike situation has taken, there is hope that if the men speedily return to work and display a willingness to abide by their contract, President Wilson may be depended on to open the wage case.

Early reports today were that the situation has improved in district 1. More men reported for work than last week. Districts 7 and 9 remain completely tied up. Promises of the insurgent element to completely tie up the upper part of district No. 1 did not materialize.

SCIENCE TO HELP GIRL CONFINED IN CELLAR 16 YEARS

Daughter Of Polish Family
Prisoner Entire Life.

Chicago, Sept. 13.—Science began today to do everything possible to restore to health the stunted brain and body of Maria Zumbach daughter of a Polish family living in a foreign quarter of Joliet who has been incarcerated in a dark basement of her home for sixteen years so she would not be a "mole" in the way," according to Mrs. Zumbach.

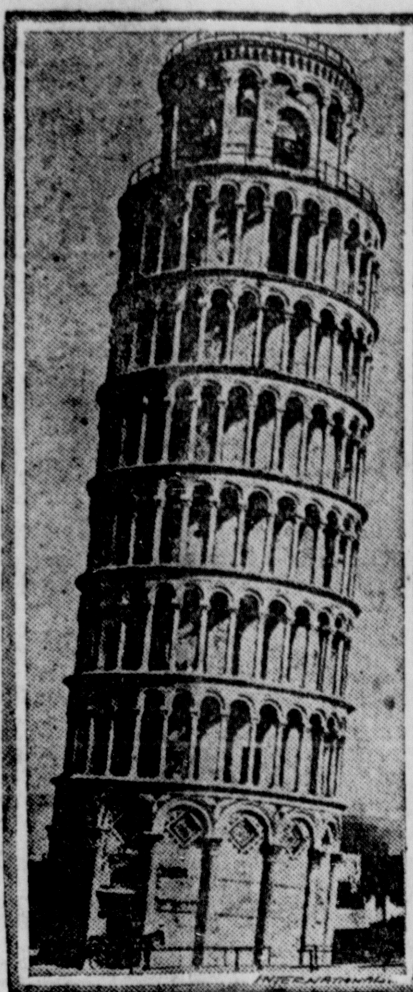

Investigation disclosed that Marie is one of five children and that she has been abnormal since birth. At the age of two years, when it became apparent she would not be a normal child, she was placed in the basement room where she has lived since, fed only on gruel and other forms of liquid food. She never cries, cannot talk and her bodily development, according to physicians is that of a six year old child.

Dr. Sigmund Krupholz, neurologist at the Cook county hospital and Dr. Bernard Klein, well known diagnostician will devote themselves to rebuilding the girl's mind and body as far as they are able.

The girl is 18 years old and according to Dr. Krupholz the "very necessary thyroid gland is completely absent."

FIREMAN MURDERED
Cleveland, Sept. 13.—Edmund Lang 31, a city fireman was murdered in front of his sister's home a little after 3 o'clock this morning. It is believed that the murderer was discovered by Lang in the act of robbing his car, which was standing in front of the house.

TOWER MAY FALL

The famous Leaning Tower of Pisa which is reported in danger of collapse following the terrific earthquake which rocked northern Italy. The hands of the clock in the tower stopped at 7:55 o'clock the morning of the quake, and it is said the famous tower was seen to sway back and forth during the shock. Hundreds are reported to have been killed by the quake, which destroyed five towns in Tuscany.

COX URGES BUDGET SYSTEM IN SPEECH AT PACIFIC COAST

Reorganization Of National Governmental Bureaus
Wanted.

Portland, Ore., Sept. 13.—Reorganization of national governmental bureaus upon a business basis and adoption of a budget system to be headed by a "budget commissioner" acting as executive assistant to the president were the main features of a financial program outlined by Governor James M. Cox in speeches here today.

"The administration of government functions can be put on an economical and efficient basis," Cox declared. "Throughout my public life I have been interested in the organization and administration of the government among improved business lines, or in other words, in securing the maximum of efficiency with the minimum of expense and I am convinced from my own personal experience, as well as the experience of other states that it can be done."

"The demands of war," said Cox, "brought to us necessity for departmental addition and extension at Washington. We must see to it at once that the failure of the last congress is remedied as quick as possible, not only must we junk the machinery that came with war, but we must repeal the burdensome taxes and definitely reduce the cost of government in normal times."

"Our pre-war experience has already shown the necessity for adoption of the budget system as the basis of public finance. Our experience during the war demonstrated that we should no longer delay in applying it to the national government."

The governor then pledged himself if elected to ask congress for authority to appoint a budget commissioner "to act in the position of an executive assistant to the president."

WOMEN CAN BRING ABOUT BETTERMENT BY VOTE, DECLARED

Appeal Made Before Catholic Conference In Washington.

Washington, Sept. 13.—Women can bring about social betterment by the exercise of their newly won franchise, Miss Helen P. McCormick, assistant district attorney of Brooklyn, declared before the conference of Catholic societies which is in session here today.

"The newly enfranchised woman must realize that the only practical way to achieve results for social betterment is by working with and through one of the two dominant parties," Miss McCormick said.

FRANCE PREPARED FOR GERMAN AGGRESSION

Minister Of War In Interview Says Military In Shape
For Immediate Mobilization In Case Of Necessity.

Paris, Sept. 13.—Having taken the liberty of action whenever her own interests are endangered, France now has her military house in order to meet any eventualities from any quarter.

This was explained to the International News Service today by Andre Lefevre, minister of war, in an interview dealing with the measures he has taken since he assumed office on January 21.

"Some people say that I am a maniac on the subject of possible German aggression," declared the war minister. "They say that I finish all my speeches in the same manner: 'I am minister of war and if I were the only one to say it, it is my duty to repeat that a new war is possible and not to omit to repeat it.'"

"Very well, I shall continue to say it. Peaceful, though we are, I will not cease to repeat it. What man of good sense among our allies and among our dear friends in America can believe we are going to risk the magnificent fruits of victory upon some alleged plan of imperialism whereby we would lose at the same time their esteem, friendship and support."

"However, it is not our fault if the dispositions of the treaty of Versailles place France in such a situation that the German peril remains; if not immediate at least always disquieting and nearer than generally expected. It is not the fault of France if the execution of the clauses of the treaty of Versailles require that we show our teeth two or three times every four months or so."

"In what manner does this attitude commanded by actual service resemble the spirit of conquest to us? When I took over the ministry of war we did not have liberty of action. The French army doubtless conserved its excellent morale and the fine units were well trained, but there was a tremendous lack of armament, the manufacture of which had been interrupted since the armistice by the return to private industry of establishments devoted to making munitions during the war. Furthermore, not only was mobilization centers badly re-constructed, following hasty demobilization but no plan of transport by rail had been definitely worked out. This is a circumstance which would have caused the greatest difficulties in case of sudden trouble."

"In a word the French army at

FEDERAL OFFICIALS INVESTIGATE STORY OF WOMAN'S DEATH

Drowning In Lake Michigan Now Under Probe.

Chicago, Sept. 13.—Federal officials today began an inquiry into the death of Mrs. John A. (Jack) Jones, bride of the president of Chicago's Dill Pickle Club, who was drowned in Lake Michigan. Discrepancies in the story told by Jones who was picked up seven miles off Racine, Wis., after clinging to an overturned boat for many hours, will be the basis for investigation. Jones is an I. W. U. leader and was divorced a few months ago. From Elizabeth Garley Flynn, noted woman I. W. U. agitator. His wife was said to be an heiress and was formerly Anna Mitchell, a portrait painter of Greenwich Village, N. Y. They were married August 12, and were on a honeymoon trip.

Jones was drowned. According to Jones' story he succeeded in righting the dory twice, after it was capsized. Mrs. Jones, he said, clung with him to the boat for several hours but was unable to continue to hold on and slipped under the water to her death. The boat is an 18 foot dory and carried a heavy motor and a tall mast. Lake Coast Guard officials are skeptical of Jones' claim that he was unable to right the boat.

Jones will be questioned by Coast Guard officials today and a report sent to the United States District Attorney at Milwaukee. Jones is in a hospital here suffering from exposure.

MAINE ELECTION ATTRACTS INTEREST

Augusta, Mo., Sept. 13.—With women voting for the first time and the League of Nations thuparumout issue, the state election in Maine today attracted nation-wide interest.

As Maine is the first state to hold an election prior to the country wide elections in November it has long been regarded as the "barometer" state. The slogan "as Maine goes, so goes the Union" was dispelled in the last two presidential elections, however, when the country went Democratic after Maine elected Republican state officials.

200,000 women eligible to vote went to the polls today.

ATTEMPT MADE TO WRECK CAR IN N. Y. FOILED

Unknown Men Try To Derail Elevated
Car.

STRIKE UNSETTLED

Governor Meets Samuel
Gompers Monday Afternoon.

New York, Sept. 13.—Attempts of two unknown men to wreck a Fulton street elevated train on the B. R. T. early today failed when a woman who saw them tampering with rails telephoned the police. It was found that a spike had been driven into the switching points, making it practically certain that one train at least would have left the tracks. The elevated structure at this point is about fifty feet above the street.

Observance of Jewish New Year today greatly relieved the congestion on the strike defying cars of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit. The strike issues still awaited settlement at noon and both sides looked with much anticipation to the conference this afternoon between Governor Smith and Samuel Gompers and other labor officials.

The public today was to begin its investigation of accidents growing out of the strike.

MACSWINEY SUFFERS ANOTHER RELAPSE; RIOTS ARE FEARED

Sinn Fein Hunger Strikers
Are In Serious Condition.

London, Sept. 13.—After rallying and passing a better night, Terence MacSwiney, the hunger striking Lord Mayor of Cork, suffered another relapse this morning.

The following official bulletin was issued at 10:30 o'clock:

"The Lord Mayor has collapsed. He is in a state of exhaustion."

Earlier in the day the Rev. Father Dominic, personal spiritual adviser to MacSwiney, has cheering news for the Lord Mayor's friends when he left Brixton jail.

"MacSwiney was not so restless during the night and was able to speak a few words this morning," said the clergyman.

Rumors that MacSwiney had been fed clandestinely by prison officials were denied by Arthur O'Brien, a personal friend of MacSwiney's who has called frequently to see him.

"I have been given every assurance that Terence has taken nothing but water since he began his hunger strike 32 days ago," said O'Brien.

STRIKERS SERIOUSLY ILL

Cork, Sept. 13.—Seven of the eleven Sinn Fein hunger strikers in the Cork jail were in critical condition today. It was reported during the morning that a death announcement might come from the jail at any time. The military and police authorities have taken precautions co-operate with the disorders in the event of the hunger strikers die. Troops and police are being held in readiness for the "riot duty." Warnings have been posted that the Unionists will make reprisals if attacked by the Sinn Feiners.

SIMMS-BOUND OVER TO COMMON PLEAS

Patrolman Charles Simms arraigned on a charge of gambling in Magistrate J. E. Jones' court Saturday afternoon on charges filed by Sheriff Funderburg waived preliminary examination was bound over to Common Pleas Court.

His bond fixed at $500 by Magistrate Jones was furnished by his attorney C. L. Darlington. The gambling charge against Simms grew out of a raid made on the Rosewald Club a week ago Saturday night when Simms is alleged to have been found in the place.

Wheeler Kimbrough and Cubert Lindsay, who had charge of the Club were arraigned in Magistrate Jones' Court Monday morning on charges of keeping a place where intoxicating liquor is sold and of running a gambling place. They waived examination and were bound over to Common Pleas Court under $500 bond apiece in each case.

ENCAMPMENT OPENS.

SEVEN INJURED.

New York, Sept. 13.—Seven persons were injured in Brooklyn today when an automobile truck sideswiped a running board of a Hamilton Ave. trolley car. The driver of the truck was arrested. Five of the injured were taken to hospitals.

FESS PAYS TRIBUTE TO COLORED RACE

Paying a tribute to the colored race, both for war and peace time activities and declaring that the nation would benefit if the "solid South" were broken, Congressman S. D. Fess, of Yellow Springs, addressed a large crowd at the Center Street Y. M. C. A. Springfield Sunday afternoon.

"The home and public rights of the colored men and women of the nation must be respected. When I became President of Antioch college it was with pleasure, for it was a school which had written in its charter that the college must be educational and co-racial," said Dr. Fess.

The Congressman spoke of reducing the Democratic majorities in the seventh district of Alabama from 3,603 to 406. "Mark my words, though," he said, "We shall win that district this year." Dr. Fess said that he had turned over to Senator Kenyon the names of certain people in Etowah county, in the seventh Alabama district, whom he said had raised $25,000 to carry the district.

BIG CROP OF HAY FEVER JOKES

But Kentucky Man Says People Who Belong to Hay Fever Colony Are Kidding Themselves.

Wouldn't Be Any Hay Fever If Simple Home Remedy Was Given a Chance.

"Let there be a real NINETEEN-HUNDRED and one effective remedy for hay or nose fever," frankly states a druggist in a prominent Kentucky city.

"But I don't expect anyone to believe me, because the treatment is so easy and the cost not worth mentioning."

"The annual crop of Hay Fever jokes would be mighty scarce if people would get three-quarters of an ounce of Mentholated Arcline, and by just adding water that has been boiled, make a pint of liquid that will prove a real help to all who suffer."

"Many of my Hay Fever friends tell me that by starting to gargle and sniff or spray the nostrils a few times a day the expected severe attack often fails to appear, and in cases where it does show up, it is very mild and does not annoy."

"It's the same way with Rose Fever."

"The Better Class of Pharmacists who dispense Mentholated Arcline say that it will greatly modify any attack, even when taken three or four days after hostilities begin."

"Go to a real live druggist when you get ready to make a pint, for up to the present time there has been little demand for this friendly medicine."

"Mentholated Arcline is new in this market. It is possible that your druggist has not supplied himself, but he can get it for you from his jobber, who has a large supply."

THE FRIENDLINESS OF THE SMALL TOWN OR SMALL CITY.

Despite the fact that 9,000,000 Americans live in villages, the needs of the small town have not received due attention. This conviction prompted the Bureau of Municipal Research in Whitman College to gather data on village needs. One hundred and thirty mayors of villages, claiming from 300 to 3000 inhabitants, responded to the question, "What do you think your town most needs?"

One mayor replies that two or three funerals would most benefit his village while another wants fewer I. W. W.'s. Some of the answers call for better public buildings, more paving and sewerage, while others ask for more "live wires." A few of the mayors would like to have more schools, parks, lights and hospitals. The total number demanding public improvements is sixty-five.

Few of the village mayors note any such house famine as is troubling the large cities. Most of them are impressed wholly by the material needs of their towns. Only thirty-four speak of any moral or intellectual shortcomings, and few express any desire for libraries or better amusements.

The American village today faces the problem of existence. And yet the small town offers unprecedented opportunities.

The town-meeting plan originated in the small towns of New England. The people gathered, discussed their affairs and appointed officers to carry out their will. The clue to greater success in the management of villages lies perhaps in the way to direct action of this sort.

But why restrict the needs to towns of 3,000. We vote to make the size 10,000, and the thing most needed Friendliness, with a capital F—or Neighborliness with a capital N.

A few years ago there was a custom on North Galloway street, this city, of having Neighborhood picnics that was most charming, and led to a friendliness of feeling between neighbors that gave a magical charm to life. What else can make your home, your own street, your small town or city, more comfortable than the feeling of entire friendliness with your neighbors?

Friendship improves happiness and abates misery. It is well worth while to learn how to win the friendship of your neighbors. Interest them by your kindness and civilities. Oblige with all your powers those who show kindness to you. To love and be loved is the greatest happiness of existence. We sing praises of the

SENATOR POINDEXTER URGES G. O. P. TO WAKE UP.

Not a day or an hour can afford to be wasted by the Republican party in the opinion of Senator Poindexter, of Washington, in energizing and reorganizing the whole grand strategy of the national campaign. Senator Poindexter, who is chairman of the Republican senatorial campaign committee, has just returned to Washington from a continent-wide survey of the political situation.

Senator Poindexter says: "There is no time to be lost, not a day or an hour, in view of the incalculable significance and importance of the question in pointing out that Governor Cox has formally approved of the action of President Wilson in abandoning his residence to a foreign court, assuming the incompatible role of minister plenipotentiary and there informing the infatuated world, in the name of this great republic, that he was commissioned, on its behalf, to give its consent to the transfer of the control of its international relations to a foreign government to be set up in a foreign country and to have back of it, to use the President's words, 'the major forces of mankind.'"

"It must be pointed out to the people that Governor Cox has ennobled this action and pledged himself to carry it to fulfillment of its purpose. Time is needed to fully explain to the American people this betrayal by those to whom they have committed their trust, not only of the established traditions and policies of the nation as proclaimed by Washington, Jefferson and Monroe, but of the sacred trust of the government itself as established by the constitution.

"Instead of issuing bulletins about campaign quotas and jowling with a candidate at a loss for an issue about campaign subscriptions, it is time to call the attention of the people to the fact that the Democratic administration has deliberately kept the nation in a state of war and has continued to exercise war powers for two years after the war ceased.

SUPREME ISSUES FOR OUR NEW VOTERS—EDUCATION, MORALS, PUBLIC HEALTH AND CHILD WELFARE.

We congratulate the women of America on the new and greater opportunities for service that now await them. May they help to purify politics and to make the franchise of more real value and significance than it has ever yet been. With a numerical strength exceeding the total vote cast at the last general election in 1916, and with the fresh enthusiasm of a great and successful suffrage campaign, it would be a sorry outcome were the newly enfranchised women of America to regard the ballot as less a duty than a privilege and thus neglect to make their influence felt from the very beginning in support of all that makes for clean politics and good government. We hope to see them take a lively interest in those issues that relate to national welfare—education, morals, public health and the child welfare. We need their intelligent co-operation in these and many other fields that call for better conditions. We are building a new world since the war—a world with a finer sense of what civilization means and we need the spur of woman's idealism, her sense of justice, her passion for peace and for conditions that would stabilize the worth-while things of life and make them firm and abiding. We can not conceive of American womanhood in the role of political serfs at the beck and call of a "boss," as so many of the other sex have been in the past. She will be finer than her surroundings, yet only by organization and experience can she make real progress. Then, by and by, when she begins to see the fruit of her hands, the outcome of her labors "will praise her in the gates."—Charles K. Sheldon.

JAPANESE QUESTION GROWING MORE SERIOUS DECLARES CALIFORNIA GOVERNOR

"The Japanese question is California's now, but it will be yours soon," declared Governor William Stevens of California, speaking to an audience at the Presbyterian church in Yellow Springs Sunday night.

"With the Japanese coming into this country rapidly through Mexico, the situation is becoming serious," the governor declared. "They are not assimilated into the life of this country. They have their own merchants, their own banks, they do not even use American money when they can avoid doing so," the governor continued. "Farming, is the chief business of the Japanese in California, and in this work, the women do as much as the men, carrying their infants into the field with them, and allowing them to remain in their basket while the mother works. 'The Japanese woman's housekeeping is so simple that she is able to do the outside work without interfering with household duties.' Women have made politics clean in California, according to Governor Stevens. The state has had universal suffrage for ten years.

"My wife and I go to the polls together and cast our votes," said the governor.

The beauties and excellence of California as a state were extolled by the governor, who said that along with an ideal climate, everything can be raised in the state that is produced in any other state in the union.

Governor Stevens was elected in 1917, and is serving his second term as governor. He spoke of the dynamiting of the governor's mansion a few years ago, when he and his family narrowly escaped death. Ten thousand dollars was required to repair the damage caused by the bombs the governor said. The executive was introduced by Congressman S. D. Fess.

Governor Stevens is a native of Eaton and spent several days there visiting scenes of his boyhood. He will be at the home of his sister, Mrs. C. C. Stephenson in Yellow Springs for several days before returning west.

OVER 1,000 NAMES REQUIRED FOR RECALL ELECTION IN CITY

That it will take over 1,000 signatures to establish a recall election for the recall of City Commissioners J. Thorb Charters, C. S. Frazer and Arthur Whalen, is now assured with the passage of suffrage and the large increase in the number of electors this fall.

According to the city charter 25 percent of the electors of the city voting at the last general municipal election must sign the petitions now being circulated to gain them recognition before the city auditor and put the commissioners in question on the defense.

After these petitions, bearing names of the 25 percent of the electors are filed with the auditor, the commissioners, whose recall is asked for, are permitted five days in which to file a defensive statement, and this statement is then displayed in the fire engine house and the office of city auditor for petitions.

The city charter says that "such copies of such petition shall remain on file in the several places designated for the period of thirty days, during which time any of them may be signed by any elector of the city in person; but not by agent or attorney." The charter further designated the signatures thereto shall amount to at least 25 percent of the voters of the city. Since women now are permitted to vote the same as men and the "voters of the city" are thus increased by two or three thousand, the petitions when displayed the second time, must secure twice as many signatures as the first time.

According to Attorney W. L. Miller, one of the charter framers, there will be probably 2,000 voters in Xenia city from now on and 25 percent of this number, which is the amount necessary to secure a recall election, would be 1,250 signatures. With only men voting, there are about 2,500 voters in the city 25 percent of which number, the amount necessary to secure the original petitions recognized.

HAD TO HOLD TO SIDE OF BED ON RISING MORNINGS

Back hurt so bad couldn't straighten up till he had walked round a while. This farmer's kidneys caused much trouble, but Drego set them right again.

"Many a morning I've had to hold on to the side of the bed in order to get up, then walk round for a while before I could straighten up" said Mr. Albert Logan, who is a farmer living near Athens, O.

"For five years I've been in miserable health. My kidneys were weak and I'd be up five and six times during the night from them. I had terrible pains in my back, my liver was lazy and I'd get so dizzy sometimes I'd have to stop a few minutes till it passed off. My stomach was also out of order and often swelled up like an army balloon from the gas in it. I was constipated and so nervous I couldn't sleep much."

"Things are different now, though, for I jump right out of bed into my clothes, and ready for a big breakfast. Don't have to get up during the night a single time; bowels acting regularly; no more dizzy spells, and I sleep like a log. All this change was brought on by taking Drego, and I think it the greatest medicine I ever saw."

TO THE DENTIST.

To the dentist I am wending at the early hour of day, when the rising sun is lending glory to the stacks of hay; for a session elevating all arrangements have been made, and the painless dentist's waiting, with his crowbar and his spade. Oh, my ringbones long have smarted, and my spavins hurt my calves; for such things, in days departed, I used Uniments and salves; but my teeth are at the bottom of such miseries as these, and the same old teeth, dod rot 'em, make existence seem a cheese. Once I had a temper cheerful, and my home was full of peace, and you heard no wailings fearful from my wife or aunt or niece; but for months I've been as nasty as a bear with festered dome, and I said things blanky-basty when I had to write a poem. Oh, a shadow o'er me hovered, and it changed my wine to gall, and the doctor has discovered that my teeth produced it all. Of all unctions the dentist is the one that spoils our glee, so I'm going to the dentist, and the dentist waits for me. In his apron new and stainless he is waiting at his door, he is standing, tall and painless, and his smile is five by four; he is singing like a linnet waiting there to cut his ice, and he'll charge a bone a minute, but the goods are worth the price.

Heart and Home Problems

Dear Mrs. Thompson: We are two girls fifteen and sixteen years of age. We are very fond of dancing and would like to dance at some theater for a week. Do you think we should try it? We have never taken any dancing lessons, but everybody says we are experts at it. It seems to come naturally to us and we would just love to dance on the stage. Our friends say we should.

Should we speak to the manager of the theater or the owner?

TWO SISTERS.

I think you are too young to go on the stage. It is a hard life and a greater test to character than most people can stand. If, however, you are determined, talk to the manager of the theater.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl nearly seventeen years of age and have a boy friend the same age who seems to care for me. He lives half a block away from me. I am a friend to his older sister. She has her beau.

This friend of mine wants to take me out, but mother objects. Mother says I have at least three more years to wait. I do not go out at all with other boys and in fact I never was out. I have very few girl friends.

He wants to take me to shows and to a party. Should I go?

I do enjoy going out, but I am so used to staying home that it is hard for me to get out. Do you think that I consider him as a beau. He is the only and best boy friend I know.

His sister often asks me to come over to their house, but I think if I do go his family would think I am crazy about him.

SINCERELY YOURS.

Your mother is right, you are too young to go places with boys. School parties are different. When a girl is in her junior year I believe she is old enough to go to parties held at the school or under the auspices of the school. When you are eighteen you will be old enough to receive callers and to go places occasionally.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: Is there a good method of gaining weight and height? If there is, will you tell me about it? I am a boy of sixteen.

SEORTY.

Get plenty of outdoor exercise. Take long hikes and go swimming. You also need eight or nine hours a night sleep. It goes without saying that you should not smoke.

To gain weight drink at least a quart of milk a day and more if possible. Also eat plenty of eggs. Simply by drinking a quantity of milk you will notice that you are adding pounds to your present weight.

MRS. L. B. S.

First of all I would wonder whether my own people nor my husband loved me. I would think perhaps I was selfish and did not do my part to make people care for me.

Your choice was made two years ago when you married. Now you must work for love and happiness. Are you considerate of your husband? Or are you irritable and forget that he works hard all day and would like to come home to a sweet and companionable wife? I realize that your lot is hard. Try to keep up the home and take care of a baby is no easy task. Try to love your work. See how efficiently you can do each task. This will help you to find it more interesting. Is time people will appreciate your efforts, too.

Neglect Keeps Doctors Busy

An eminent physician once said: "Were it not for people who neglect the early symptoms of disease, many doctors would have to find a new way to make a living."

Every winter doctors are busy calling on gripe and pneumonia patients because the first symptoms of colds were neglected. Watch out for a cold this year. At the first sneeze and sniffle take Lightning Laxative Quinine Tablets. You'll stop the cold and feel like a new person in 24 hours. Never gripe or sicken. Druggists guarantee them—25c a box.

DAY & Hemphill THE REXALL STORE Xenia, Ohio

NOT TO AMERICANIZE ENGLISH DRUG STORES

LONDON—George M. Gales who has become by a dramatic stroke the foremost drug purveyor in the world is at present in London. He is the president of the Liggett's Company, which operates the largest chain of drug stores in American and vice-president of the United Drug Company, the largest manufacturing firm in the states. Recently he has become the managing director of the Boots Pure Drug Company.

Mr. Gales is alert in movement and has keen eyes set in a strong face. He is a typical American business man in appearance, and his every action expresses energy and determination.

"Business is my hobby," said Mr. Gales recently. "I derive more pleasure from work than from anything else."

"We have no desire to Americanize the business of the Boots Pure Drug Company, or to Anglicize the business in the United States. It is our intention that each country shall assimilate the best ideas of the other."

"These great drug companies have not been amalgamated, but we have formed an alliance, with the object of more economical working. The total capital is between $100,000,000 and $125,000,000, and the employees in England and the United States will number from 30,000 to 40,000."

"The two concerns will be run on business lines in accordance with the trade traditions of the individual country. There is a belief that our American ideas of a drug store are far more comprehensive than those prevailing in England. This is largely fallacious, because 30 per cent of the products that we sell are exactly the same as the goods sold in England."

"I hope to arrange for an interchange of managers, but not entirely of ideas. Only such methods as are suitable will be introduced. I do not think, for instance, that we should provide for the soda water fountains here."

Is It Yours

THIS IS THE BIRTHDAY OF
GENERAL PERSHING
September 13th, 1860

John Joseph Pershing, commander-in-chief of the American Expeditionary Forces in France, was born in Missouri 60 years ago today. He went to West Point and graduated when he was 26. His first fighting was against the Apache Indians, and then against the Sioux tribes.

Like many Army officers, he was brought back to be military instructor in his school. Then, when he was 39 years old, he was sent to the Philippines. Some years later he served as military attaché at Tokio. It was about this time that he married. He was back in the Philippines for four more years, then was sent to California, and in 1916 into Mexico in pursuit of Villa.

It was during this expedition that the most terrible tragedy of his life occurred—when his wife and 3 small daughters were burned to death in the Presidio fire in California. His small son was saved.

In 1917 Pershing was sent to Europe and was the leader of all our forces there. He has received a great many military honors from our Allies, including the Grand Cross of the Legion of Honor. He was spoken of as a Presidential candidate in the campaign.

An infallible remedy for Indigestion, Constipation, Neuritis, Rheumatic Pains and all character of Nerve and Stomach troubles.

The Crowned Queen of Plant Life
Hamlet, Clermont Co., Ohio.
December 12, 1918.

My Dear Colonel Sterrett:

A woman had given birth to seven children, all being strong and well, but when they reached the age of 18, they wasted away and died. When the last, a girl, exhibited symptoms of the same wasting disease, from which the others had died, I made a concentrated tincture of Alfalfa seeds fully saturated of which I gave her ten drops, four or five times a day. Under this treatment her weight increased from 99 to 133 pounds and she recovered.

One or two drops in a bottle of milk, three times a day is especially useful with bottle fed babies. It increases the flow of milk in nursing mothers.

I regard Alfalfa as the most wonderful tonic on the earth and the most efficient remedy for a character of stomach troubles that has ever been discovered by man.

BASEBALL FANDOM PICKS BROOKLYN AS FLAG WINNERS

New York, Sept. 13.—Inch by inch the impression is creeping upon fandom that the strength of the Brooklyn National League Club has been underestimated and that it is the Charles Ebbets team which will face the American League pennant winner in the world's series next month. The team now stands out three and a half games over its nearest competitor and the Dodgers pitching staff is putting forth its most herculean efforts.

In the American League the indications are now that the Yankees and Indians will go down to the last wire, fighting it out for the honor of representing Bag Johnson's circuit. Advantage is with the Indians, for they are making their fight on the home grounds and are in the lead now by one point.

The American League leaders stand:

Club	W.	L.	Pct.	To P'ty
Cleveland	83	51	.619	20
New York	86	53	.618	15
Chicago	84	54	.609	16

Cleveland has eight of its twenty remaining games to play on foreign fields, four each in Detroit and St. Louis.

Of the fifteen games remaining on the Yankee schedule three are booked for Polo Grounds with Washington. Finishing up with Detroit, they are down for appearances in Chicago St. Louis and Philadelphia.

One ray of light enters for the Yankees in the six games the White Sox still have abroad. Three of these will be with Cleveland.

The National leaguers line up like this:

Club	W.	L.	Pct.	To P'ty
Cincinnati	74	57	.565	23
Brooklyn	81	57	.587	16
New York	75	60	.556	19

Both Brooklyn and New York are winding up the season in the east mainly on the home lot. Only three games away from home remain for the Dodgers, but they are with the Giants. These wind up the Brooklyn season one game at home October 3 with the Braves.

New York has two games scheduled away from home out of its nineteen and these are scheduled at Brooklyn. Four games at home out of twenty three remain for the Reds. Two of these are with Chicago and two with Pittsburgh.

SPORT BRIEFS

Catcher Gharrity lifted a ball into the Chicago bleachers, but Eller on base thought the ball caught and refused to score. The umpire got into an argument when he decided Gharrity had a two base hit and was out for passing Eller. The Senators won 5 to 0.

From the Yanks spotted the Tigers to four runs and then trounced them 12 to 6.

The Indians kept in the running by whipping the Athletics 5 to 2. The Red Sox outscored the Browns 9 to 7.

The Cardinals shocked Broadway by trimming the Giants 6 to 3. Brooklyn increased its National league lead by whipping the Cubs 5 to 0.

MEXICAN WOMEN STRIKE

Mexico City, Sept. 13.—Rebel forces headed by General Felipe Pineda, have seized the town of San Cristobal in the state of Chiapas, according to advices received at the war department.

NEGRO IS LYNCHED.

Meridian, Miss., Sept. 13.—Will Echols, negro recently convicted of the murder of Henry W. Davis, was taken from jail at Quitman and shot to death. Echols was sentenced to be hanged Friday, but his execution was stayed in an appeal to the supreme court.

HAIL STORM SOUNDS DEATH KNEEL FOR HOME GROWN MELONS

No home grown melons this year. This announcement is verified as far as Xenia is concerned, with the fact that John Marshall and Sons of Cedarville, who annually furnish home grown watermelons and cantaloupes to this city, will have no melons at all this year.

"A hail storm on July sixth destroyed the crop," said William Marshall, of the famous firm of Marshall melon producers. "The hail broke the vines," he continued, "and only the little side shoots prospered after that. There is not a melon on the vines. If the storm had come sooner we would have had melons by now. As it is, the vines we planted afterward have small melons on them now, but they will not mature in time before frost hits them."

For several years the Marshalls have produced home grown melons at their place near Cedarville and sold them in this city. Last year they maintained regular markets here for several days in the week and sold $4,000 worth of melons. The year before they sold $3,000 worth of melons.

This year the Marshalls estimated their loss at at least $3,000 not counting the rental of the ground they planted the vines on. The hail storm which destroyed their crop was only about a half-mile wide but struck the melon patch in the middle. One of the Marshall boys, who has a small patch near Wilberforce, has been able to produce some cantaloupes but the big crop near Cedarville is a total loss.

HEALTH SUPERVISION IN COUNTY SCHOOLS NOW UNDER WAY

Schools in Xenia and Greene County will receive health supervision this year, insuring the physical as well as the mental development of the pupils. District Health Commissioner R. H. Grube, in co-operation with Superintendent C. A. Waltz, County Superintendent H. C. Aultman, and other school officials and teachers, is planning a campaign to discover and correct physical defects in the children, to improve school sanitation and to establish more rigid control of contagious diseases in the schools.

"Improvement of the health of the school children of the county will mean better progress in school work," said the health commissioner. "Other conditions being equal, the well child will be more alert mentally than will the unhealthy one. One can predict confidently that as physical examinations progress, the group of children with physical defects will be found to include most of those who are retarded or are habitual absentees. Removal of the defects will lighten the teacher's work and will enable these unfortunate children to take their place on an equal footing with the pupils who are not so handicapped."

"The teachers are already displaying great interest in the health program and we are counting upon their hearty co-operation in making the work a success."

Dr. Grube, expects to instruct teachers in symptoms of contagious diseases and physical defects, that they may be on the watch for such signs among their pupils and supplement the work of medical examination of pupils. Ventilation, lighting, cleaning of rooms, sanitary equipment, water supply and lunches will also receive attention from the health commissioner.

Records of health work in other states and in other parts of Ohio show that wherever school physical supervision has been installed scores of physical defects, previously unrecognized have been brought to light. Many defects thus discovered

THE TABLE.
Champagne Ham is good served hot or later sliced cold. To serve six or more people get a seven-pound ham. Boil about two and one-half hours. Allow to stay in this water over night. The next day take off outer skin of ham and when ready to serve cover the top with cloves, a half cup or more of brown sugar on top and then pour over small bottle of gingerale. Place in oven and allow to roast about one and one-half hours, according to size of ham.

Place crisp lettuce leaves on individual dishes, cut cauliflower into small pieces and place on lettuce. Sprinkle grated cheese over cauliflower and over that sprinkle English walnuts.

Potato Pancakes—Two cups cold mashed potatoes, one-half cup flour, two-thirds cup milk, three eggs yolks, two teaspoons baking powder, salt and pepper to taste. Mix beaten stiff. Bake on a well greased griddle.

Cornmeal Pancakes—One pint of sour milk or buttermilk, one pint cornmeal, one egg, one teaspoon soda and a little salt. Mix and fry.

Cream Puffs—One-half cup butter, one cup boiling water, one cup flour, four eggs. Put butter and water in a sauce pan and place over fire. When mixture boils add flour all at once and stir briskly until mixture leaves sides of pan. Cool, add one unbeaten egg after another, then beat thoroughly. Drop by spoonful on a buttered pan, about two inches apart. Bake in a moderate oven until puffs are firm and crusty. Cool.

Make a small cut with sharp knife and fill with custard. Dust tops with powdered sugar. This recipe is simple and never fails if followed carefully.

MARY A GOOD BUSINESS WOMAN CHAPTER 115

How the time flew. Mary and Tom were both very busy at the shop. The business was constantly growing; they were now cramped for room to serve all that came for pan-cakes and other things—as well as needing a larger place to cook in. Tom had found such a place in the same locality, but it would be at least two months before they could move.

Mary had proved a remarkably clever business woman. She had so little education it was the more surprising. She was clever, ingenious, quick to see opportunity. If she had a fault in business, it was that perhaps she was too willing to "take a long chance," as Tom expressed it. But he was practical, inclined to weigh all they did carefully, and so as I have said before, acted as a balance wheel for Mary.

What they had accomplished was marvelous when one took into account that all the capital they had to start the shop was the little I got on my jewelry from the pawnbroker; and the help Mrs. Fagin had given me. I had been of very little use even at first save in fixing up the place attractively, and helping to plan. I know now as I look back, that I never could have made the success Mary did; my health, in the first place, would not have permitted. I never had been very strong and res-never could have accustomed myself to being tipped, to the manner of some of the people who patronized us. The work was not congenial, and I do not believe one can do good work unless it is.

But Mary was an inspiration. Heart and soul were in that little business she herself had built up. Next to Tom, she loved that shop better than anything in the world. It was no wonder she made it a success.

Mr. Claxton frequently took a meal at the shop, and was very much interested in both Tom and Mary.

"If young people could realize what they were able to accomplish by application and industry, we would have fewer unhappy marriages," he said to me one day when I told him that Tom and Mary had only a short time before their wedding. Then he added: "Working girls, accustomed to their own pay envelopes, and unaccustomed to domestic work, are often dissatisfied when they have to endure the confinement of household duties, and are without money of their own."

"But everyone can't go into business," I replied. "No—but every working girl who has been independent by her own efforts should have an understanding with the man she intends to marry. No matter how small his wage if he objects to her still working after they are married—as most men do—it should be understood that a certain part of his money belongs to her. In other words, she should be paid for doing the work of the home—paid in cash. Then let her do her share in providing. But it is unfair to girls who have been earners, to start their married life under the handicap of either having no money they can call their own, or being obliged to ask for it.

"I think you should write a book on the subject, Mr. Claxton."

He smiled, then asked: "Don't you agree with me?"

"I never have thought anything about it, but I think you are right. Father and Mother each had their own bank account, or rather a joint account."

"Your parents were in very different circumstances."

"Yes—I do believe you are right. I have only been a working girl a short time, but I should miss my pay envelope. I delight in the feeling it gives—that it is mine because I have earned it, not as a gift."

"And you do earn it, Miss Stewart, every penny of it."

I did not realize it at that time, but my employer often chatted with me for a few moments when work happened to be slack. He did it so easily in so matter-of-fact a way, that I gave it no thought. Afterward I learned that busy employers did not often waste their own and their employees' time in chatting with them.

I learned it in a very disagreeable way thru overhearing a conversation between Miss Wilcox and Mr. Betts.
